

Webinar on CMA Pakistan to CPA Canada

Dreaming of becoming a CPA in Canada, but not sure where to start?

ICMA, through its Canada Branch Council, is organizing a webinar to provide members and aspiring professionals with a clear understanding of the CPA exam structure, effective preparation strategies, and what to expect throughout the certification journey.

This initiative is in line with the Reciprocal Agreement signed between ICMA Pakistan and CPA Canada, which aims to foster professional cooperation, capacity building, and knowledge exchange between the two bodies. As per the agreement, both institutions have agreed to collaborate in the areas of professional education, training, research, and joint programs that support the global mobility and recognition of accounting professionals.

Agenda for the Webinar:

- Why do you need CPA Qualification in Canada?
- CPA Registration, CFE Exam Timelines and Cost.
- CFE Exam Structure.
- Why is CFE Challenging?
- Counter Attacking Strategy to Tackle these Challenges.
- Pass Percentage.
- When and How to Start?
- Source of Technical Material.
- Guide to Case Writing.
- Comparison Chart on Different Preparation Approaches.
- Open Q/A Round for Your Questions.

Speakers:

Guneet Kaur
CPA Canada

Guneet Kaur, CPA (Canada) and CA (India) possesses over 8 years of experience working with Deloitte and other corporates in Financial Reporting and External Audits.

Together, Guneet and Ravneet have mentored over 500 CPA Canada candidates through their Capsule courses and Case marking support, webinars and ongoing pro-bono initiatives. Having themselves navigated the journey from global Chartered Accountants to CPA Canada without much guidance, they deeply understood the challenges candidates face. Soon after earning their designations, they committed to bridging that gap, helping global CAs achieve the CPA Canada designation confidently and smoothly, with mentors by their side every step of the way.

Ravneet Sachdeva
CPA Canada

Ravneet Sachdeva, also a CPA (Canada) and CA (India) boasts over 8 years of experience in International Corporate Tax working with Big 4 Consulting firms and multinational enterprises across Canada, India and UK.

With warm regards:

Intzar Hussain Rana
