

Consultation Session for Practicing Members for Promoting Shariah-Compliant Intermediaries in SECP-Regulated Sectors

Introduction:

The Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan (SECP) has floated a Consultation Paper to get feedback / comments on their initiatives for promoting Shariah Compliant Intermediaries whereby it aims at developing a structured ecosystem of Shariah-compliant intermediaries across Pakistan's financial sectors—including the Islamic Capital Market, Non-Banking Financial Companies (NBFCs) and the Takaful industry.

ICMAP being a premier National Institute feels its responsibility to facilitate the initiative and get together the experts and practicing CMAs for providing the feedback / comments.

Practicing Members and members working in the relevant industry are cordially invited to attend the session.

Key Activities of the Session:

- Get clarity on key regulatory reforms
- Explore emerging opportunities in Islamic finance
- Understand your role in supporting the shift toward a riba-free financial system

At the end of the Session:

- Participants' feedback will be collected and formally shared with SECP as part of the public consultation process.
- Expert commentary and recommendations from seasoned professionals will also be consolidated to support SECP in refining the regulatory framework for Shariah-compliant intermediaries.
